M. AD HOC COMMITTEE FACILITATOR(S)

1. Purpose

From time to time it may be necessary to have a temporary committee dedicated to a purpose not listed above. In these instances, an Ad Hoc Committee will be formed and a Facilitator assigned to the committee. The Group Conscience Facilitator will define the responsibilities at the time of their appointment.

2. Responsibilities

- a. The Group Conscience Facilitator, at the GCM, will appoint this position.
- b. The representative will report to Group Conscience any information that was obtained about the Ad Hoc Committee.
- c. The Group Conscience Facilitator will determine any other responsibilities necessary for a particular committee.
- d. At the conclusion of the Ad Hoc Committee, the Facilitator will disband the Committee.

3. GROUP REPRESENTATIVE

The primary purpose of a Group Representative for Another Chance Group is to maintain contact with the appropriate Area Representatives, attend its meeting(s) and report back any information obtained about the Area Group(s).

A. Committees

1. Group Representative will attend the following Area Groups.

- a. Help Line
- b. Hospitals and Intuitions (H&I)
- c. Outreach
- d. Public Information (PI)
- f. Web Servant
- g. Literature Review

2. Terms of office will be from February through July and August through January.

B. Responsibilities

1. The representative will conduct themselves as a representative of Another Chance Group of NA.
2. The representative is responsible for maintaining contact with the appropriate Area representative, where applicable, and attending ASC Conference(s) and workshop(s) whenever possible to obtain information and guidelines.
3. The representative will report to Group Conscience any information they have obtained about the Committees, including, but not limited to, needs, achievements, goals, events and activities.

N. KEY HOLDERS AND MEETING FACILITATORS

A. KEY HOLDERS

1. Purpose

A Key Holder's purpose is to ensure that the message of recovery is available to the still suffering addict by maintaining accessibility to the Group and all of its supplies during all Group approved hours of operation.

2. Responsibilities

- a. All front door Key Holders will be appointed through the Co-Facilitator or Facilitator in absence of Co-Facilitator.
- b. All supply key and literature Key Holders will be appointed by the Program Facilitator or Co-Program Facilitator.
- c. Each Key Holder will be assigned a time slot to either unlock or lock the Group.
- d. Must notify another Key Holder or one of the Group Committee Facilitators if unable to be at the Group during assigned times.
- e. Must turn in the front door key to the Co-Facilitator or Facilitator at end of term.
- f. Must turn in supply and literature keys to the Program Facilitator or Program Co-Facilitator. The keys are the property of Another Chance and in no way, does the Key Holder have permission to loan out, duplicate or withhold keys from Another Chance or Another Chance's current Co-Facilitator or Program Facilitator or Program Co-Facilitator.
- g. All Key Holders will attend two (2) Group Conscience Meetings during their term of office. GCMs are held the last Sunday of each month at 1:30 pm. Must answer to both roll calls to be considered present.

B. MEETING CHAIRPERSONS

1. Purpose

The primary purpose of Another Chance is to carry the message to the addict that still suffers. Our meetings are the best vehicle for such a purpose. Just as the newcomer is the most important person at any meeting, our Chairpersons are the most important trusted servants of our Group. Their purpose is to ensure that the message of recovery is available by facilitating the meetings by which we share our experience, strength and hope.

2. Responsibilities

- a. All Chairpersons will attend the Chairperson's Workshop.
- b. Each Chairperson will be at the Group at least fifteen (15) minutes prior to their scheduled meeting time, prepared for each meeting as defined by the Guidelines of Another Chance's official Chairperson's Workshop Guidelines (See Sections IX, C).
- c. Each Chairperson will make sure someone is present to lock the front door after close of the 8:00 p.m. meeting to allow for fellowship, as defined by Section IX, B, Building Information and as defined by the Guidelines of Another Chance's official Chairperson's Workshop Guidelines (See Sections IX, C, 4).
- d. Each Chairperson will be responsible for the passing, counting and logging of the basket, per our 7th Tradition, as defined by Chairperson's Workshop Guidelines, and logging the Literature and Cinderblock purchases.
- e. All Key Holders will attend two (2) Group Conscience Meetings during their term of office. GCMs are held the last Sunday of each month at 1:30 pm. Must answer to both roll calls to be considered present.

IX. GROUP GUIDELINES

This section of Guidelines concerns itself with the day-to-day operations of the Group and is intended to be written documentation of current GCM decisions; to prevent misunderstandings and miscommunications. Change(s) to the Guideline Section do not require a thirty (30) days posting, except changes to the Special Meetings section. Changes to the Special Meetings section will be posted from one business meeting to the next before being voted on at the GCM.
